

2010 Houston Shootout Series

WHAT: Prior to the 2010 season the tournament directors of AVA, Houston Juniors, Texas Tornados and Willowbrook got together and worked out a plan for all of their facilities to work together and commit all of their teams to a series of 4 events so that no longer would teams have to guess where the competition be on a given weekend. The vision is for all the clubs in the city of Houston to meet 4 weekend a year at the same tournaments to insure good competition for everyone while limiting the travel and keeping the costs low.
